FINAL RESULTS

REGATTA HIGHLIGHTS: California's never-ending winter rains held off for Saturday and most of Sunday allowing for a great weekend of racing. After a wind delay Saturday morning, the fleet sailed in 10-12 knots of westerly with a strong ebb making course & start line strategy important. Five races were held. Sunday saw 5-10 knots from the southwest, and a few rainshowers pass by. Courses were windward/Leewards. Thanks to John Craig and the crew of college sailing alums who handled the race committee (& Stanford Alum regatta chair Jeff Condon). No protests filed, one redress granted.
